International One-Day Conference

Saturday 16 February 2008

The Resources Centre, Holloway Rd, London, N7 6PA
9.30 till 4.30 pm

TOO MUCH, TOO SOON?

Early Learning, the EYFS legislation and Young Children's Well-Being

This conference, organised by the Open EYE Campaign Group, will explore why some key aspects of Government policy on the early years curriculum in England may not be in the best interests of young children. Speakers will include:

Professor LILIAN KATZ (Early Childhood Specialist, University of Illinois)

Dr PENELOPE LEACH (Fellow of the British Psychological Society)

SUE PALMER (Educational Consultant and Writer)

Dr DOMINIC WYSE (Lecturer in Early Years & Primary Education, Fellow of Churchill College, University of Cambridge)

Directions

By London Underground train:-

Take the Piccadilly line to Holloway Road station. On leaving the station turn left and walk under the railway bridge for 5 minutes. The Resource Centre is on the opposite side of the road and can be reached by using the pedestrian crossing.

By bus:-

Buses 4, 17, 29, 43, 153, 253, 259, 271, 279 and X43 stop within a short walk of the Resource Centre. Also there are mobility buses available in the area, these are numbers 920, 921, 923 and 927.

By car:-

As with most city centre venues, parking can be a problem. There are some unrestricted parking areas behind the Resource Centre and these are marked on the map.
